

Rittenhouse Square Flower Market : Irish Delegates at Erin : Camera Catches Other Views

SOCIETY AT THE FLOWER MART—Miss Emelie Kennedy and Mrs. George H. Earle, 3d.

FLOWER MARKET in Rittenhouse Square attracts hundreds to the toy, vegetable and flower booths. The society event is held under auspices of the Society of Little Gardens.

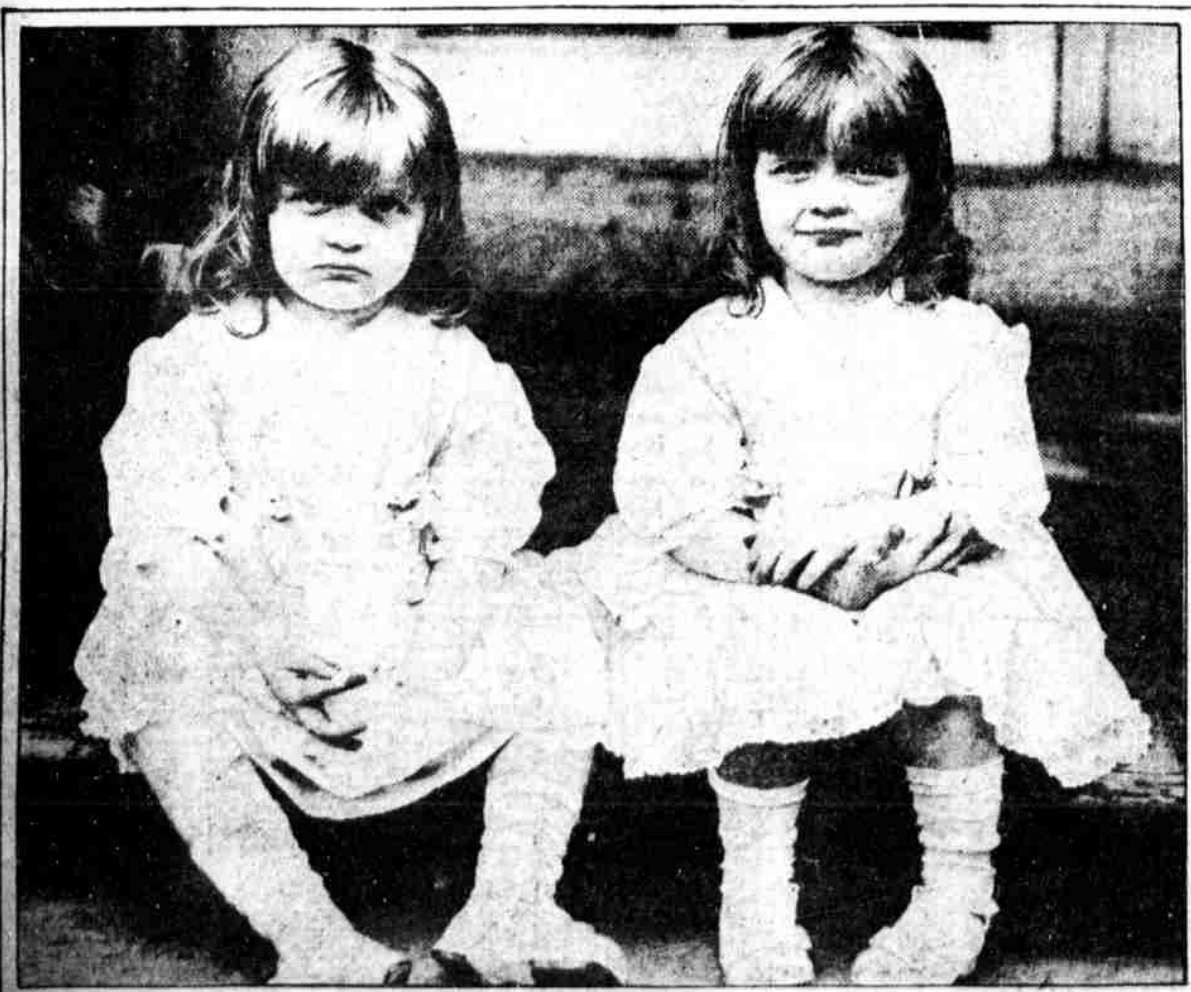

"BILLY" AND "DOUG"—the evangelist, Sunday, and movie star, Fairbanks, practicing baseball in a California photoplay colony.

PREMIER CLEMENCEAU'S daughter, Madame Jacquémaire, wearing the Croix de Guerre awarded for valiant service at the front. She has received several other decorations for bravery and service.

"CHO CHO," famous clown, employed by Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior. His business is to attract children and lecture on health. Here he is seen weighing children at headquarters in Washington.

PEACE PEN, presented to Premier Clemenceau to be used when peace treaty is signed.

"WE'LL WIN," say baby entrants in the Germantown May Market to be held tomorrow at School House Lane and Greene street. Little Isabelle and Mary Costigan consent to pose in May-day dresses.

IRISH-AMERICAN Peace Conference delegates receive rousing welcome when they reach Kingstown to discuss the Irish question with Sinn Féin leaders. Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia; Frank P. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne are met by thousands of home-rule advocates.